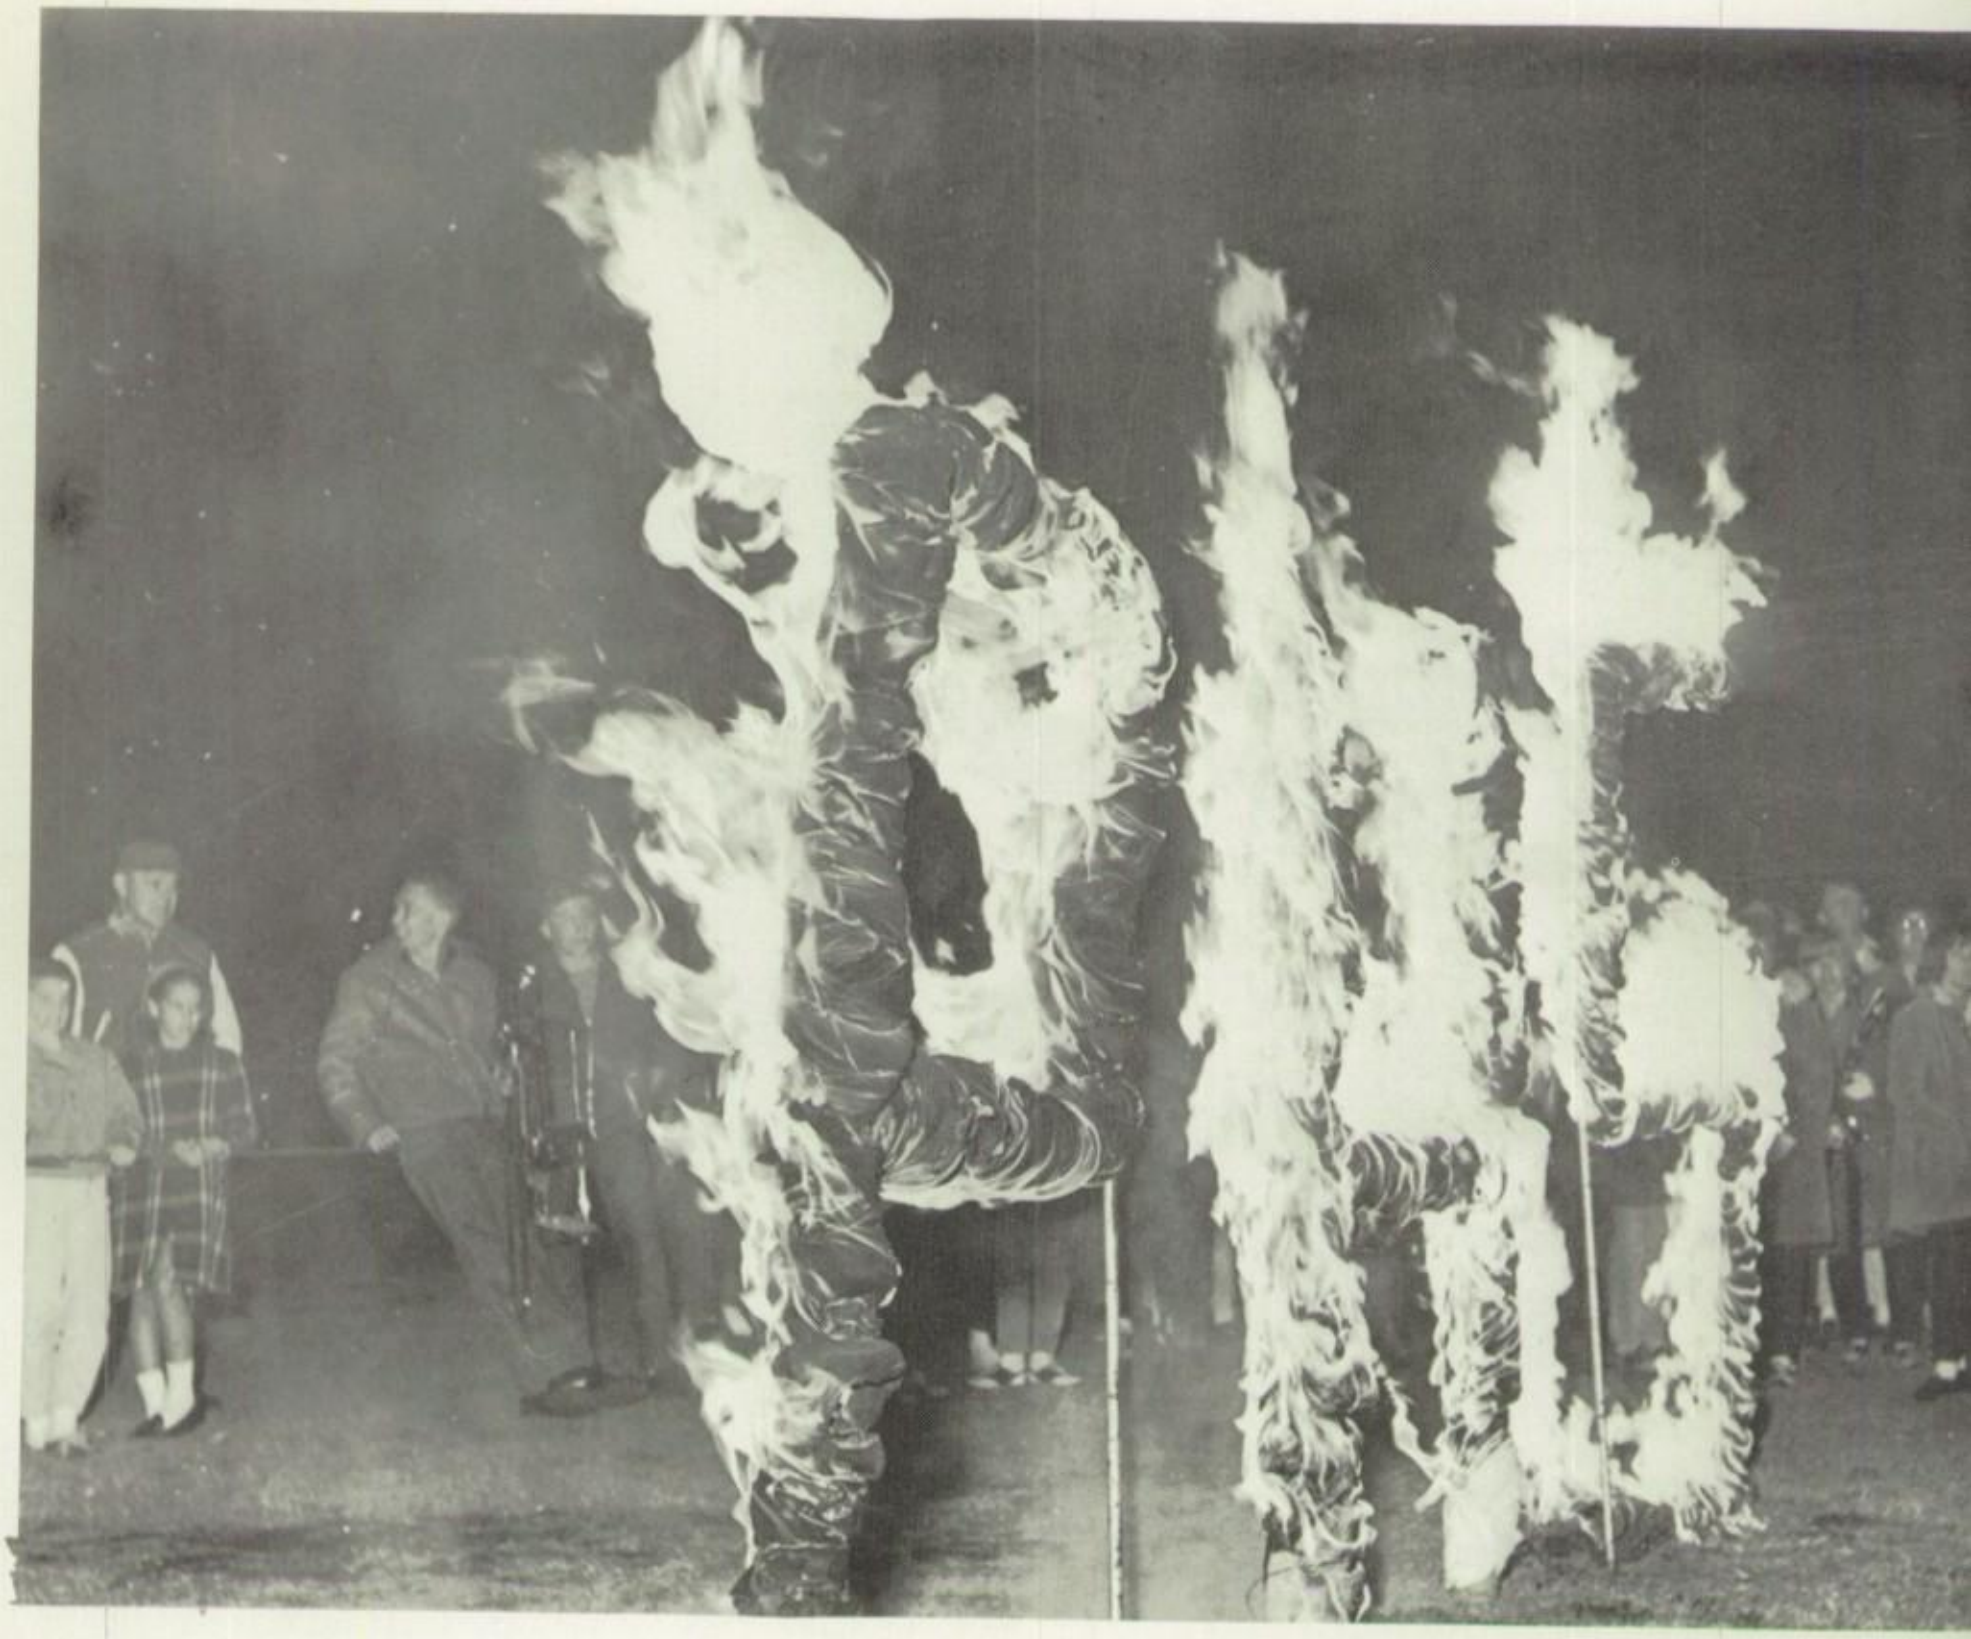
SHINING ERA . . .



FOREWORD

With the passage of years, you may look back upon this school year as the time when the darkness of ignorance suddenly became bright with the gleam of knowledge as the 75th year of learning unfolded at PRHS.

We, the seniors of 1966, are honored to be members of the Diamond Jubilee class. To preserve a memory of the achievements and experiences of you and your classmates, this annual strives to capture the "eyes" and "mind" of the scholarship, the leadership, the activities, and the character of PRHS.

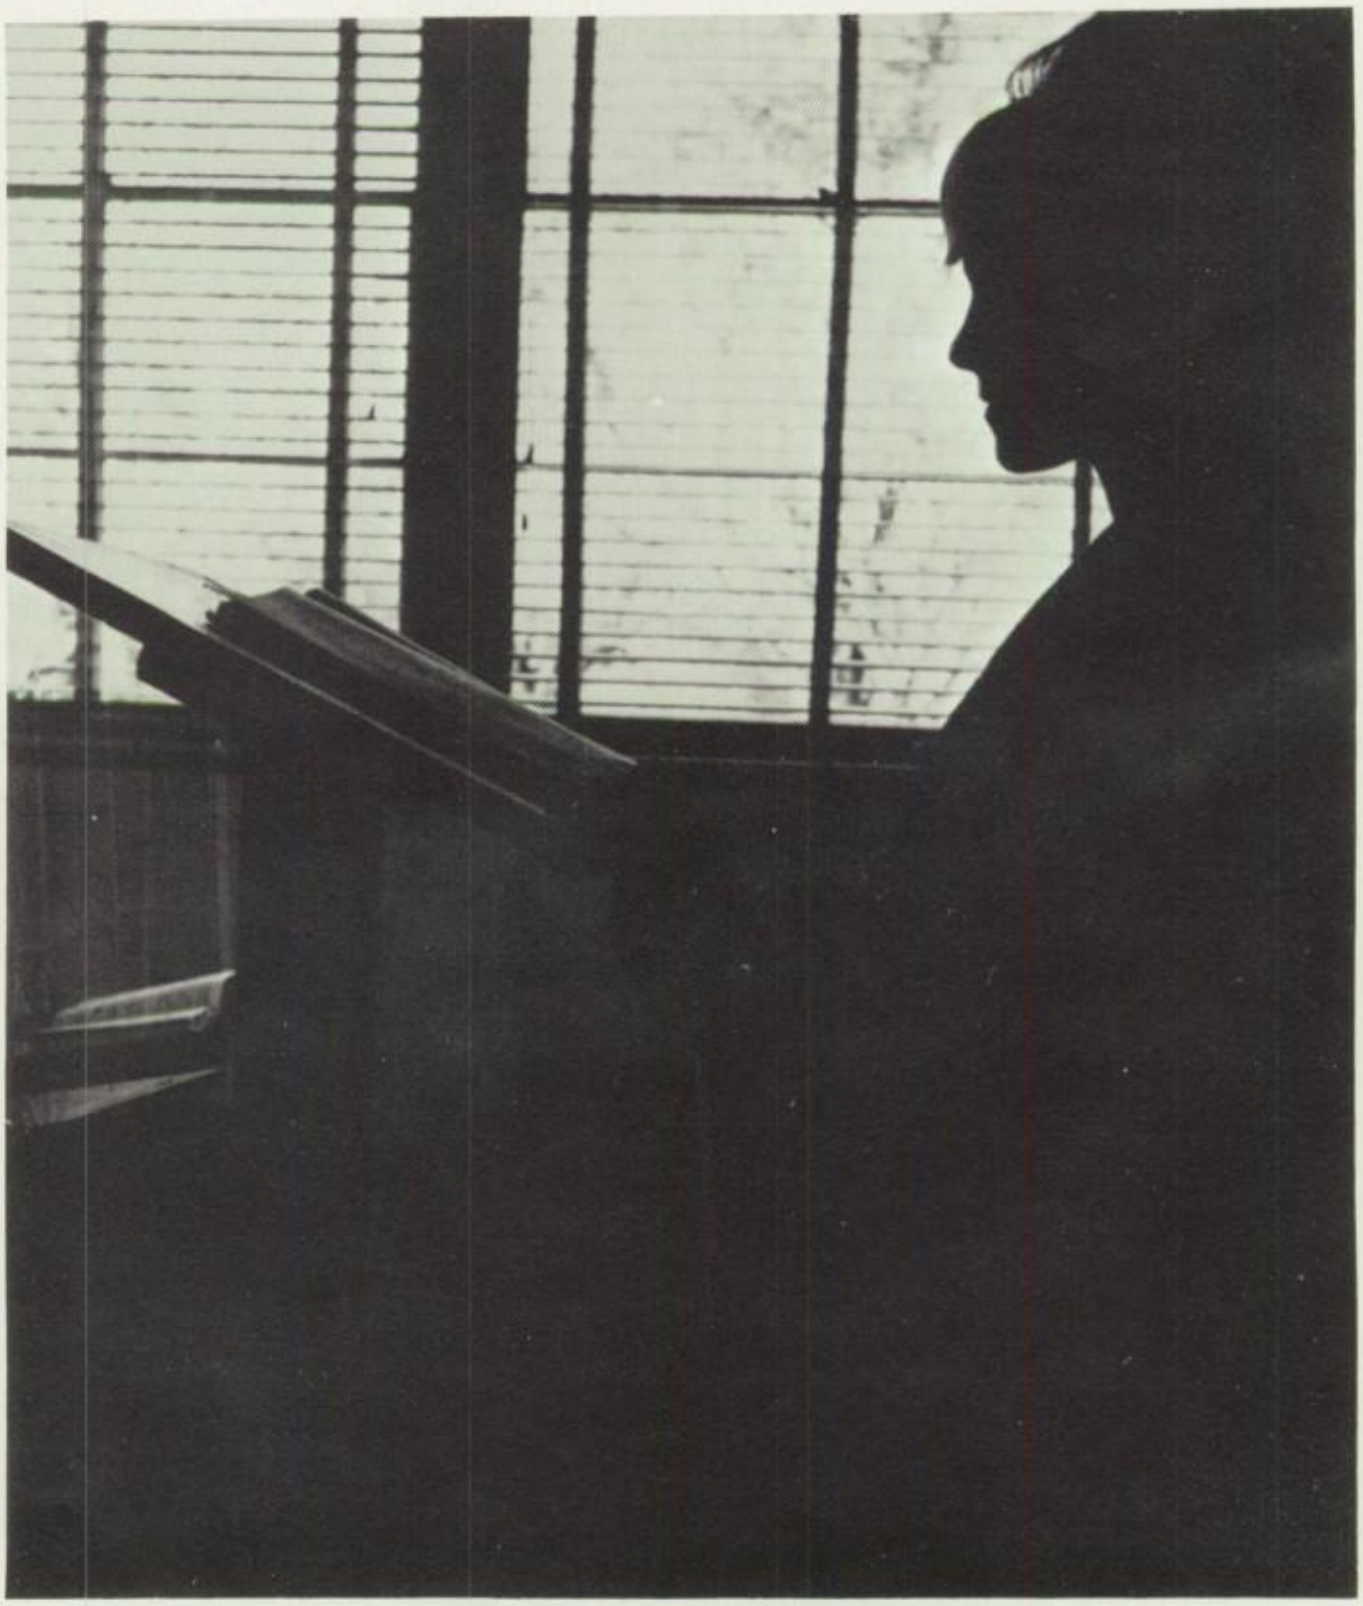
. . . . . the building

PRHS . . .

. . . . . the students

Some of the many expressions and activities to be found in the halls of PRHS during the noon hour.



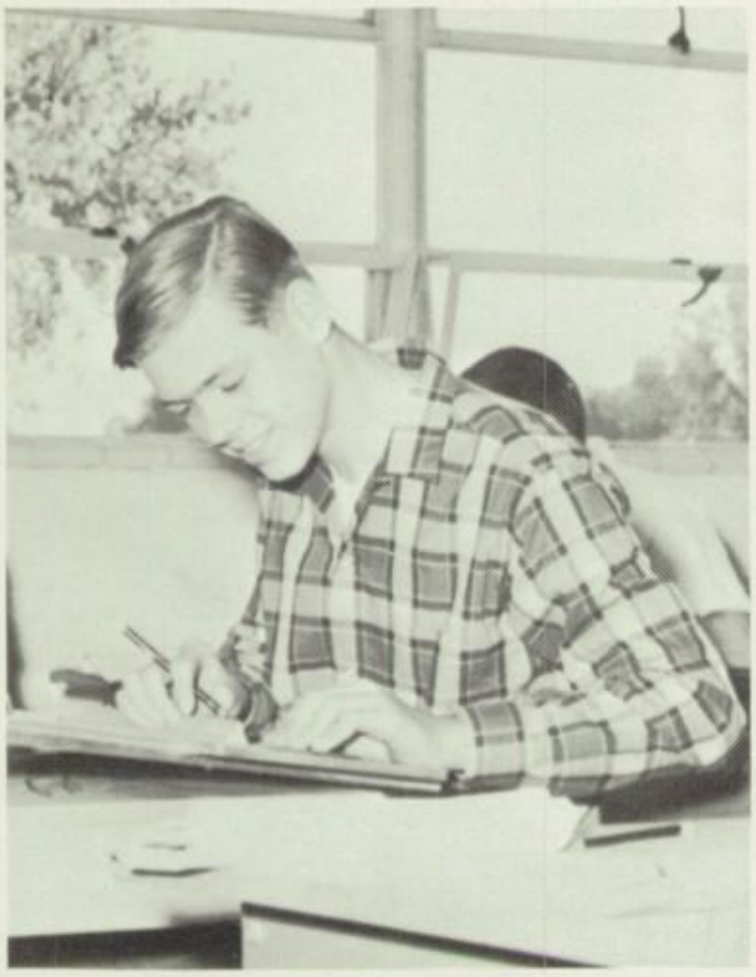
Lydia Dennison gives a recitation entitled "Profiles in Darkness."

"I want to buy four yearbooks," roars Mr. Battitori.

Student Life

Are two cooks better than one?

Bill Plante has evidently found another error.

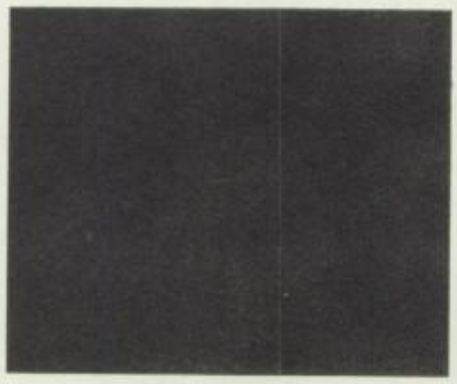


Are Mr. Parker's jokes really this funny?

Whitey Kuhn in a rare moment of concentration.

"For those who think young!"

ACTIVITIES



Seniors in English IV learn the fine points of our complex language.

Freshmen hopefully learn the basis of grammar in English I.

ENGLISH

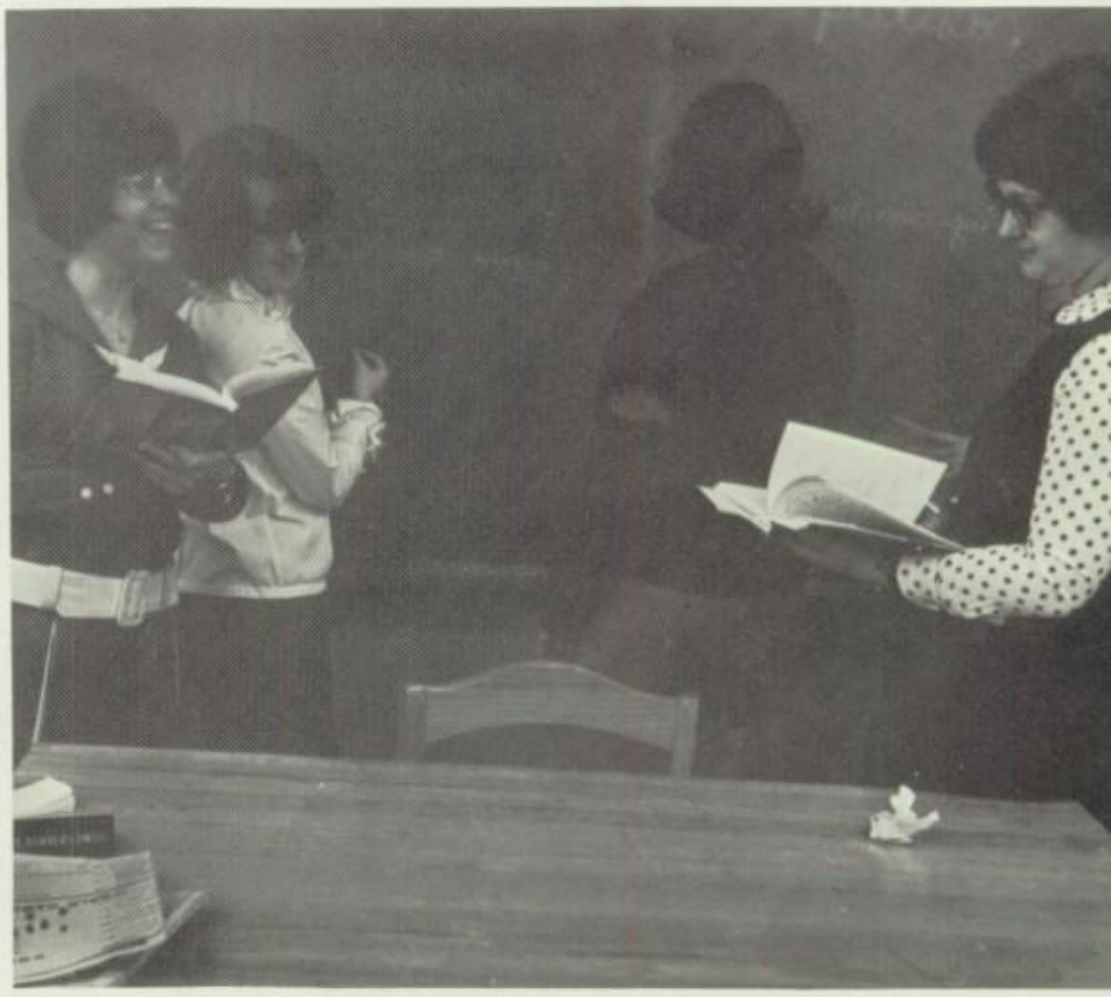
SPEECH AND FOREIGN LANGUAGES

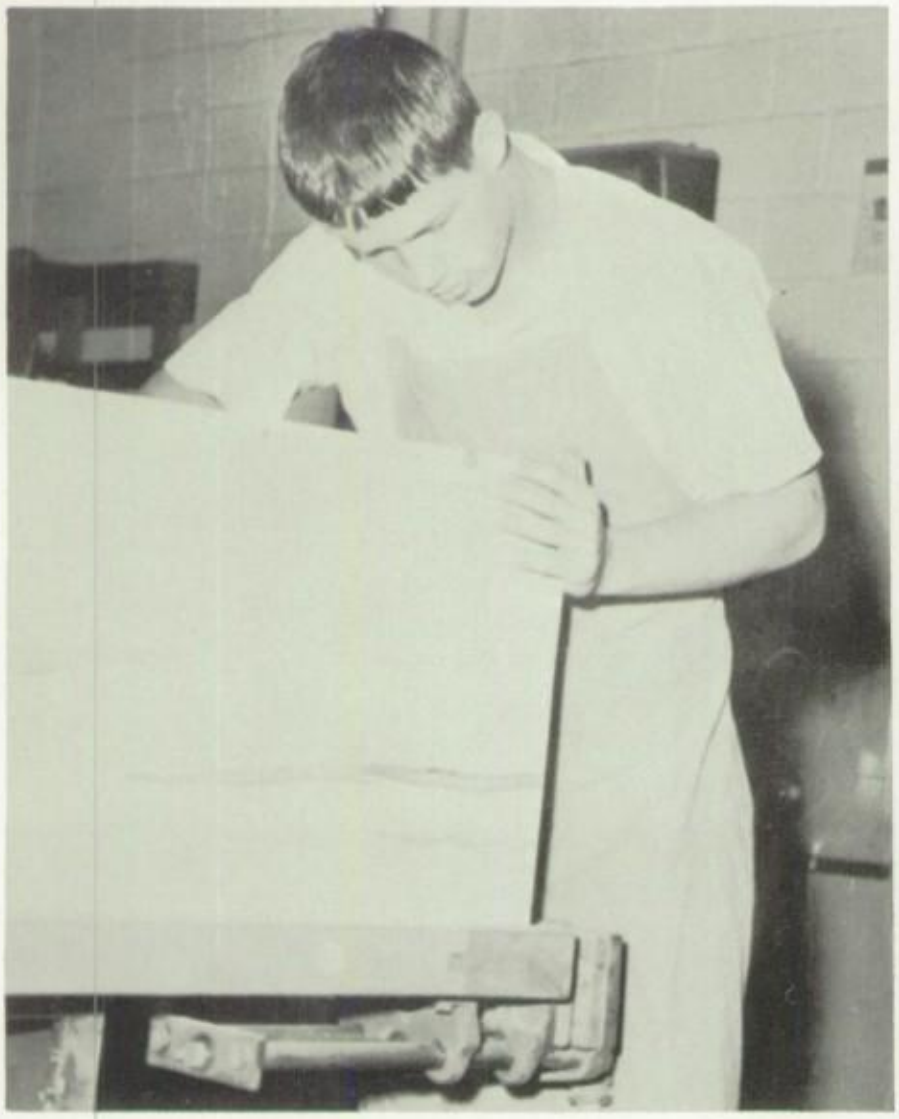
Is Mr. Ary yearning to be a Latin student again?

Greg Meyers must be trying to get some idea of the questions on the next test in English III.

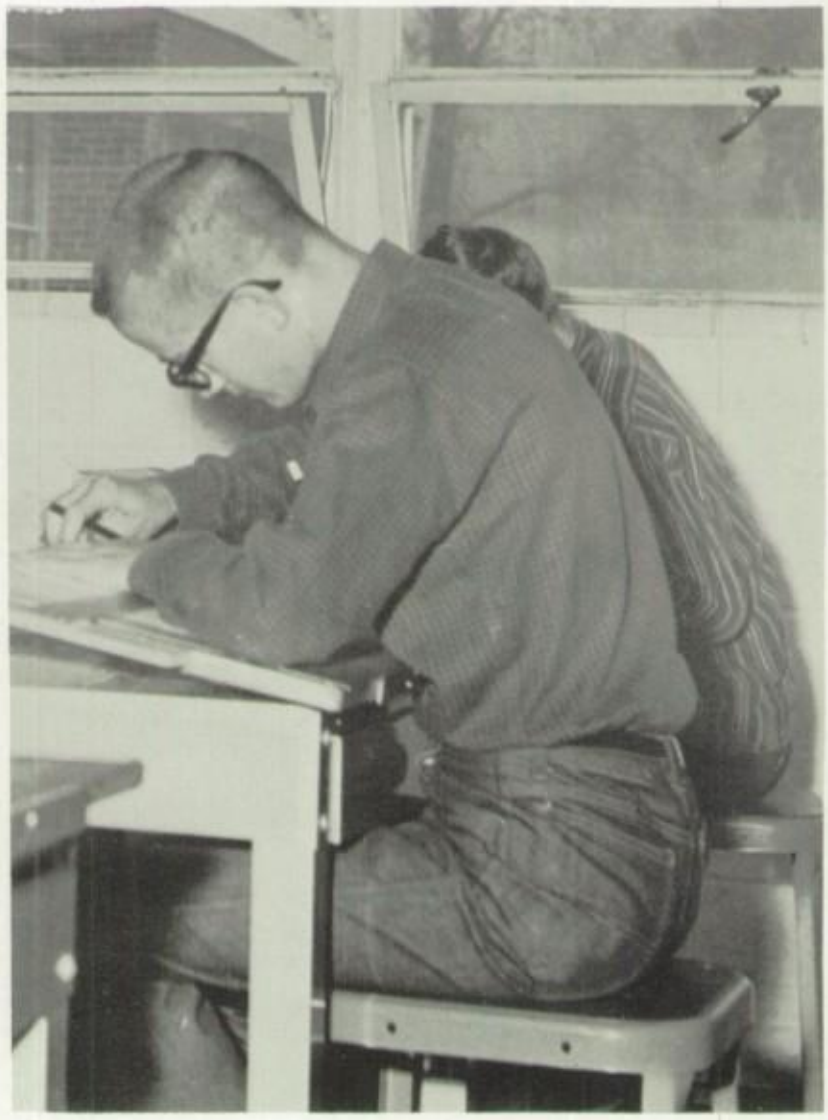
Surely more nervous people than Terry Kaba have stood behind this stand.

Cindy Hammonds and Shelia Dreher seem to be having a good time in Spanish, or is this a spitball they're laughing at.



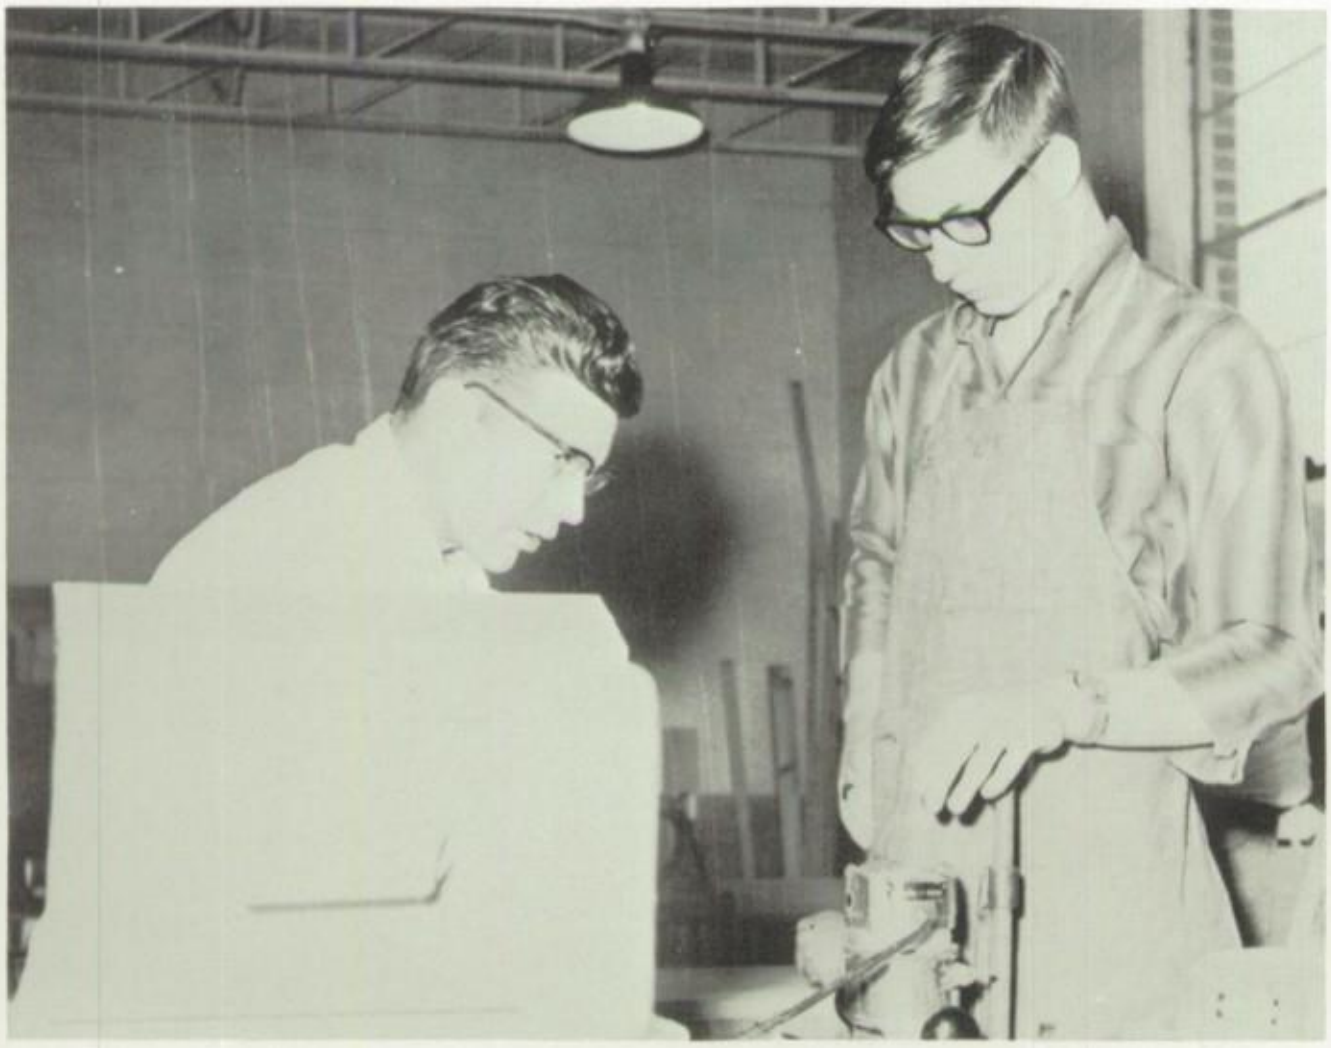


"Many hours will go into this project to make it right" thinks Dale Allen.



Eddie Rempe learns how to draw his project before he can build the real thing.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS



Mr. Parker shows Marc Mock how to operate the sander.

"Who needs an engine when you've got pedals?" asks Jack Burton.

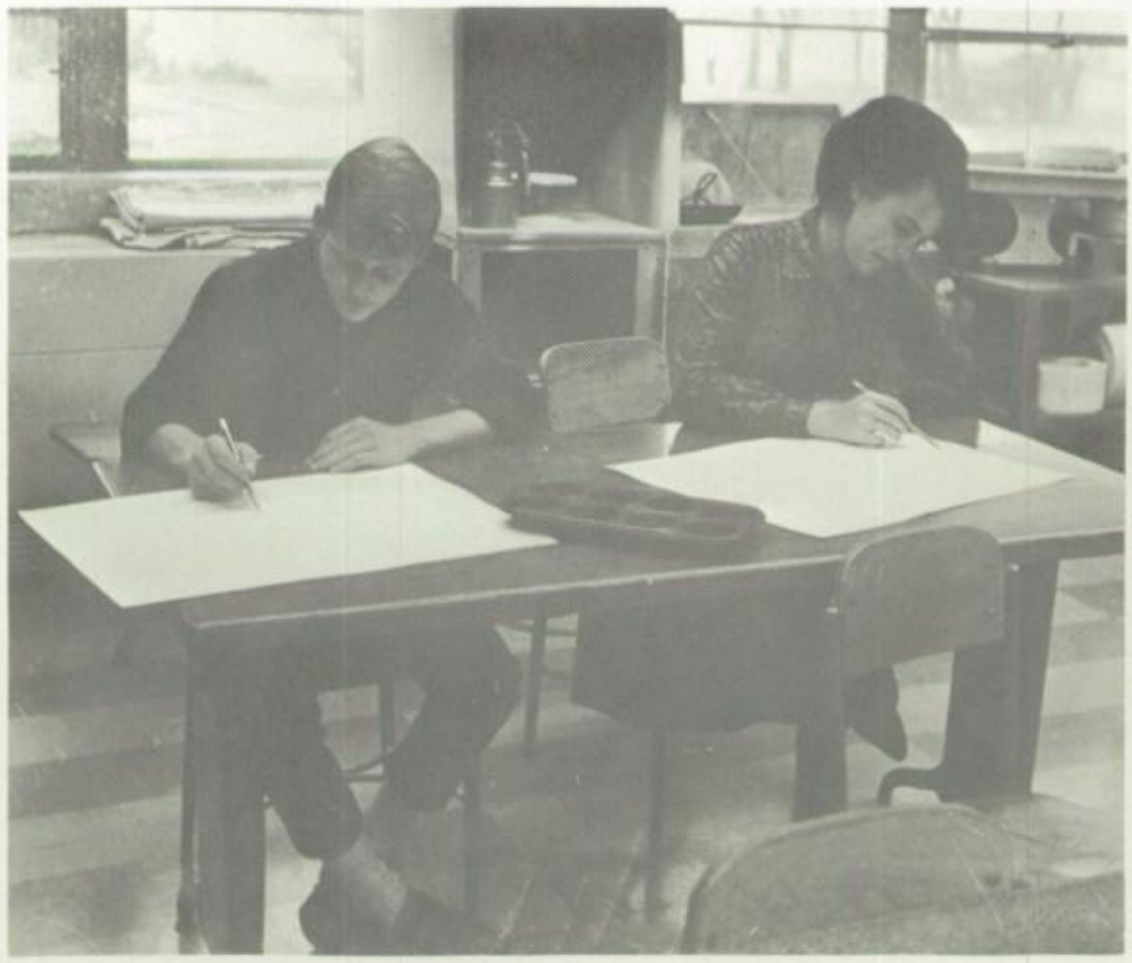
Francis Brown has lost another bolt, but he'll get it fixed one of these days.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE AND METAL SHOP

Kenny Conway and Terry McKown work on their projects in Vo-ag II.

Another of Mr. Kroeger's art classes begins its daily lesson.

ART



Whitey Kuhn and Linda Caughlin can only hope that Mr. Kroeger doesn't catch them with these blank sheets of paper in front of them.

Susie Rolfe enters the drivers ed car "for better or worse."

DRIVERS EDUCATION

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

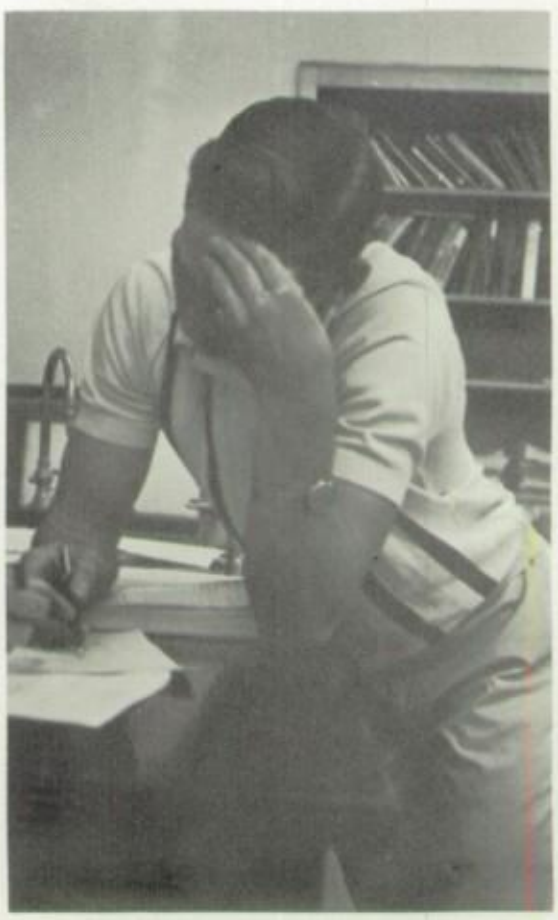
The 5th hour all stars at practice in the gym.

Bert Copland prepares to mount the parallel bars in Mr. Alvarez's Physical Education class.

SCIENCE

Keith Unrein, Deanna Beal, and Lucille Corwin prepare to begin another experiment in chemistry.

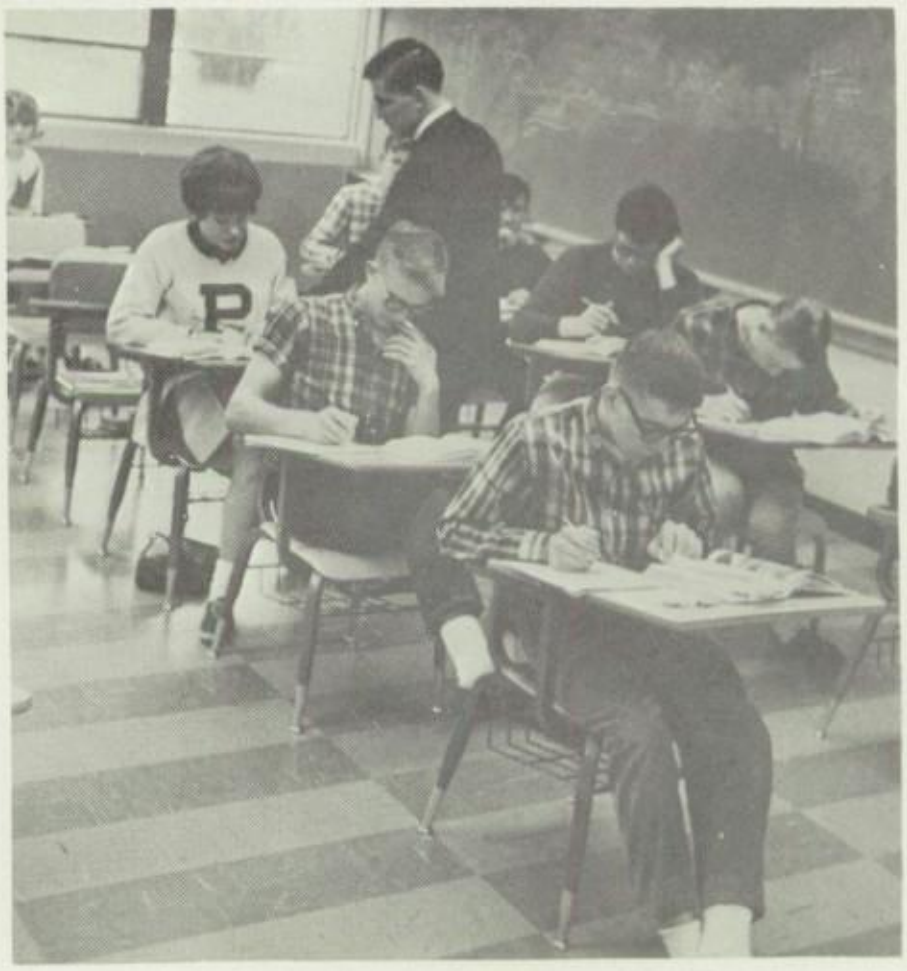
Shirley Rotach doesn't seem to be too concerned with biology at the moment.



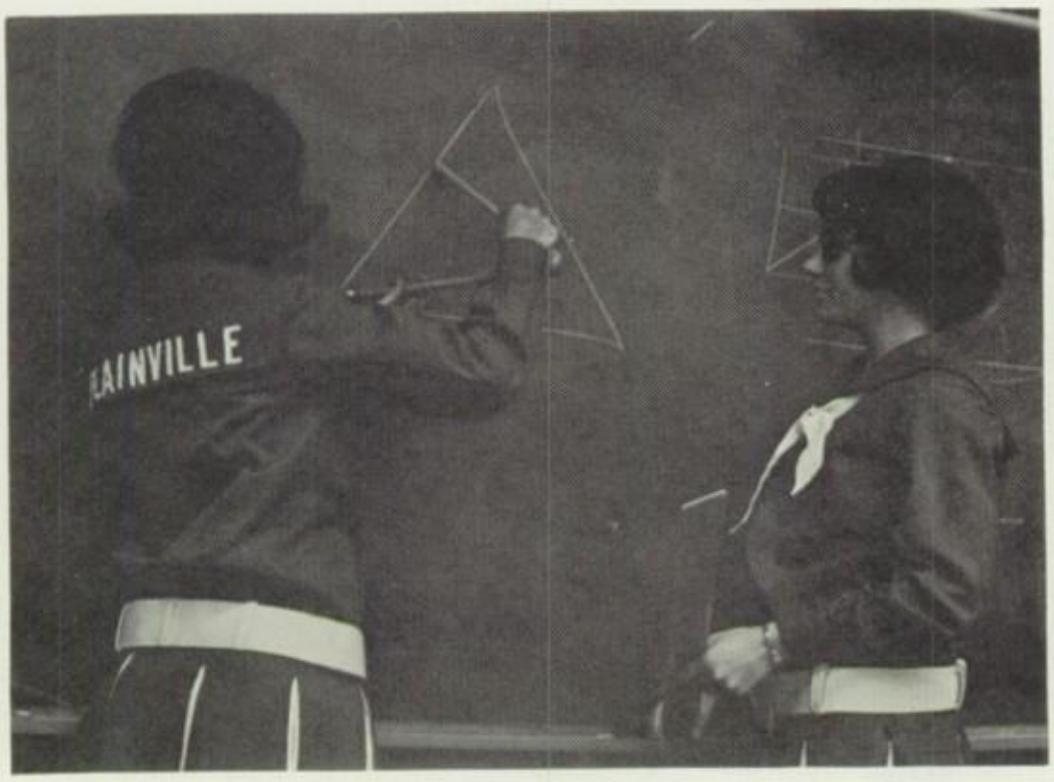
Randy Hilgers appears to have a knotty problem in chemistry.

MATH

It looks as if Ken Whitmire and Jerry Schrock are more interested in the photographer than the algebra lesson.



Gayle Gardner receives help from a student teacher in geometry.



"What is the purpose of all these triangles?" wonders Barbara Harrison.

Mr. Battitori's American History classes aren't always this happy, especially come test time.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

Third hour government class in a familiar pose, hard at study.

Another of Mr. Battitori's history classes learn about our country's heritage.

Connie Dreiling prepares an assignment for Mrs. Klish during a free minute in Home Economics II.

HOME ECONOMICS

Valerie Wickham and Pat Hutchcraft put the finishing touches on their projects.

A group of girls in Home Economics discuss fashions and trends in clothes.

PRHS band marches in Fort Hays State's annual band day festivities.

BAND AND VOCAL MUSIC

Members of Mr. Dolezal's concert choir study their music during a lull in the singing.

Newspaper editor Tom Cussen, Tom Harris, and Brian McLellan look for ideas for the next issue of the Booster.

Renee Haase prepares to clobber Dale Allen in the skit put on by the journalism class to kick off yearbook sales.

JOURNALISM

Members of the journalism class look over papers from neighboring schools in the area.

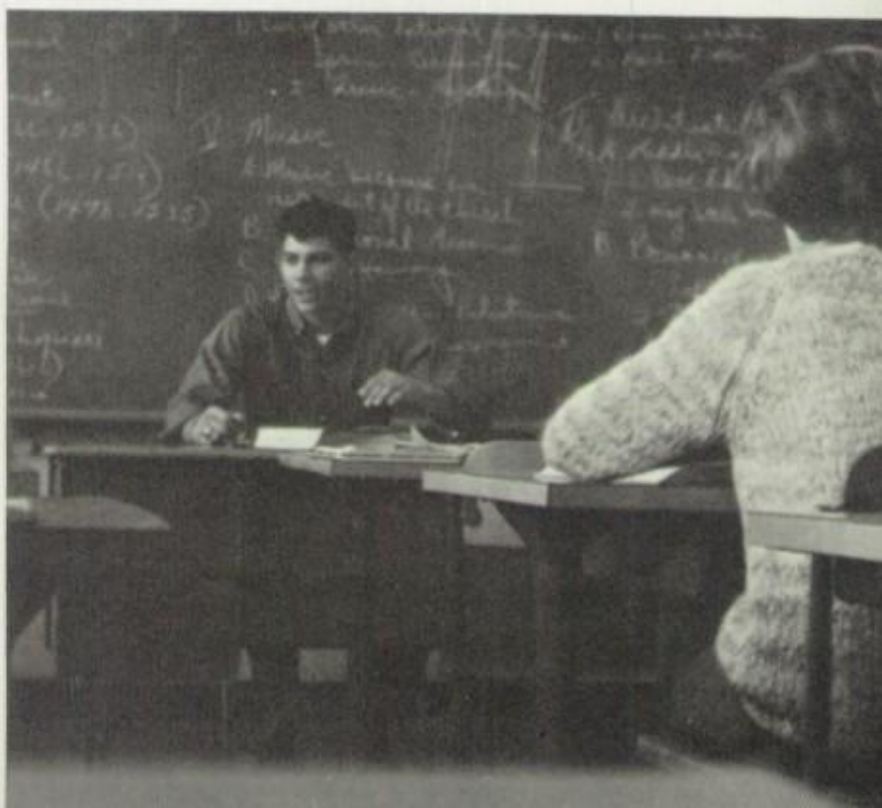
SOCIOLOGY

BOOKKEEPING

ECONOMICS

Mr. Engborg's sociology class doesn't look too excited at the moment, but they usually are much more lively than this.

Kenny Meyers operates the adding machine in bookkeeping to save strain on his brain.



Tom Harris occupies the teacher's seat for a day in economics.

COMMERCE

Sheila Dreher practices taking dictation in Mrs. Reh's Office Practice Class.

"A group of eager beginners," third hour typing class.

"Oh! I've made another error," moans Barbara Horton.

SENIORS

The seniors of '66 have now finished their final year at PRHS. Some of us have reached our goal, others will continue to further their education.

Graduating in 1966, gives this class the distinction of being the Diamond Jubilee Class of PRHS.

In their junior year class rings were chosen, an all time high was recorded in magazine sales, some seniors were chosen as cast in the Jr. play, and with the coming of May, the prom.

Farewell will soon be said to ole' PRHS, but happy memories will remain forever in the minds of the seniors of '66.

JUNIORS

Beginning the three-quarter mark on the stairway to success are the members of the 1966-67 junior class.

They have the distinction of being the largest class enrolled at PRHS this year, having a total of 40 boys and 38 girls.

New experiences awaited the Class of '67 as they began their journey through their junior year. There was the junior play, "Pick-a-Dilly", the magazine sales, and the annual junior-senior prom.

Next year, the Class of '67 will face new experiences, responsibilities and the biggest and busiest year of their high school days at PRHS.

SOPHOMORES

The 70 members of the sophomore class return to PRHS with mixed emotions. They are no longer green frosh, but they are not considered to be "upperclassmen" yet either.

The biggest event of the year was when the Class of '68 selected their class rings which will arrive in the fall of their junior year. A few were lucky enough to serve at the annual junior-senior banquet.

Having completed the first half of their long road to graduation, the Class of '68 will find a bigger and better year waiting for them next year.

FRESHMEN

These 62 Freshmen spent their first few weeks at PRHS wandering around as though they didn't know what was right or wrong.

But the Class of '69 soon conquered their "lost feeling" and began an adventure through four years of study, work, fun, and companionship.

Now that these greenies have climbed up one-fourth of the ladder of success, they can look forward to the next three years at PRHS to complete the three-fourths remaining.

This was a big year for the Class of '69, and next year will face them as being even greater and more eventful as they become sophomores of PRHS.

Superintendent Nilwon Kraushaar

Mr. Nilwon Kraushaar started his second year as superintendent of PRHS with new ideas and great efficiency. With patience, initiative, and perseverance as a community leader, Mr. Kraushaar has provided the vital link between students and a good education.

With all his duties, he still finds time for his favorite sports. Mr. Kraushaar received his BA degree in education and MA degree in administration from Kansas State University at Manhattan.

Principal Al Hargrave

Mr. Al Hargrave is now serving his third year as principal of PRHS. The year started off at a smooth pace as Mr. Hargrave took over his duties with skill and understanding. The man on the intercom may just seem like another part of school, but in years to come he will be remembered as a vital part in the development of our education.

Before becoming principal, Mr. Hargrave taught history and was head football coach at PRHS. He received his BA degree at Kansas Wesleyan in Salina and MA degree at Fort Hays State College.

The Board of Education is a vital part in the lives of PRHS'ers. The Board is pledged to exhaust every effort and resource necessary to achieve the finest educational program for the children of the community.

Planning budgets, selecting school officials and teachers, and improving methods for the betterment of education are some of the duties of the Board.

The Board is composed of: William Eckart, Director and well-liked local businessman; Bert Taylor, Clerk and an active local businessman; F. L. Harrison, Treasurer and PRHS alumnus; Henry Ott, member and longest serving, since 1958; and Vic Ordway, also a very active member.

On behalf of all PRHS'ers, we wish to extend a big "Thank You" to the school for performing unendless tasks for our benefit.

Administrative Assistants
Mrs. Lyon, Secretary to Mr. Hargrave.
Mrs. Ashley, Secretary to Mr. Kraushaar.

FFA

Barnwarmer candidates Diane Harrison and Cindy Hammonds saw logs at the assembly put on by the FFA.

Under President Jack Burton, the FFA strove to help its members make better men, and to manage their finances.

Some of the activities of the FFA included the annual Barnwarmer at which senior Diane Harrison was crowned queen.

The officers journeyed to the national convention at Kansas City, Missouri October 22-23. From time to time the FFA travels to various towns to judge livestock and land in competition with other FFA Chapters. At the end of the year they also sponsored the annual Parent and Son Banquet for members and their parents.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

OF AMERICA

The Plainville chapter of the Future Homemakers of America sought this year to make better people of its members. To this end they sponsored many projects to give the girls an education in the art of homemaking. The girls planned and prepared a meal for their mothers.

Some of the other activities of FHA include a caroling party, and gifts to needy families at Christmas time, and sponsor PRHS's annual Sweetheart Ball.

PEP CLUB

A-team cheerleaders: Julie Smrcka, Barbara Harrison, Cindy Hammonds (head), Cathy Cussen, and Suzy Weir.

Under the guidance of President Diane Harrison, the Pep Club cheered the Cards on at all games. The Pep Club provided vital team support which helped the players immeasurably by assuring the boys that someone was behind them, cheering them when they won, sympathizing when they were not so fortunate.

In addition, Pep Club sponsored the Sno Ball, using "Silver Bells" as the theme this year. Members of Pep Club nominated Stephen Mayo, Kent Carmichael, Don Rachel, Tom Harris, and Mike Reed as candidates.

B-team: Patsy Brin (head), Gayle Gardner, and Paula Van Dyke.

P-CLUB

P-Club sponsors, Mr. Battitori and Mr. Jaco, guided the club in its activities and projects.

The ranks of P-Club, composed of lettermen in all varsity sports were enlarged by the addition of several transfer students who were invited as honorary members. P-Club invited these boys to be members on the condition that they had lettered at the school from which they had transferred.

The group took its annual trip over a weekend this year to see Kansas State and the Kansas City Chiefs play. The lettermen sponsored the intellectual contest between the boys and girls known as "The Battle of the Sexes", and a chicken dinner at the end of the year for members.

STUCO

The Student Council serves as an interim organization in matters which are of primary concern to all in school. It serves as a means for students to voice their feelings through their elected student government representatives. Composed of a president and vice-president elected by the student body and representatives from the organizations and classes, the council attends to social and academic affairs through various committees.

The Student Council is responsible for the planning and organization of assemblies such as homecoming, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter.

Third Row: D. Cox, D. Beal, L. Kleinschmidt, Mr. Greinke. Second Row: Mr. Unruh, K. Mai, W. Rempe. First Row: P. Thrasher, C. Edson, M. Reed. Kneeling: B. Plante, K. Carmichael, D. Plante.

COMPUTER CLUB

The Computer Club was organized to give interested students at PRHS a chance to learn the concepts of higher mathematics. Under the supervision of Mr. Unruh and Mr. Greinke the group journeyed to Hays periodically to take advantage of the offer by Fort Hays State College to use their computer.

The group was composed of juniors and seniors who have had Algebra II. It was organized not to make money or sponsor projects but to further the education of its members.

CARDINALS EXPERIENCE DISAPPOINTING SEASON

This year's football season may best be described as erratic as shown by the 1-8 won-lost mark. Essentially this was a rebuilding year; with only three returning starters from last year. Our opponents proved to be unusually competitive this year which could be seen from their season records. Although you might call this a losing season, it was well supported by the students and the townspeople. The cards this year were fortunate to have an increased and experienced coaching staff. Led by the three team captains the team withstood the many painful blows of defeat.

Along with the invaluable aid of Head Coach John Battitori and Assistant Coach Paul Engborg, the three team captains provided the needed leadership during practice sessions and games. Team captains are seniors: (L. to R.) Mike Reed, Tom Harris, and Steve Mayo.

Cardinals Experience Trying Season

Coach Gene Jaco, starting his second year as head mentor, greeted five returning lettermen and four transfer lettermen who served as the nucleus of this year's squad.

The Cards played inconsistently but at times showed sparks of promise although they faced many greatly improved opponents. During the season the team learned the value of cooperation and sportsmanship as a result of numerous setbacks.

Grapplers Post Winning Season

Wrestling, introduced to Plainville as a varsity sport only last year, has come to be a very popular spectator sport. The Cardinal wrestlers proved to be the most successful of PRHS's athletic teams, falling prey only to older and more experienced opponents.

The team elected seniors Leon Moeder, Jim Havlas, and Bob Meistrell as captains for the 1965-66 season.

Plainville nailed down 3rd place in the district tournament at Kinsley, in the process qualifying six for the regional.

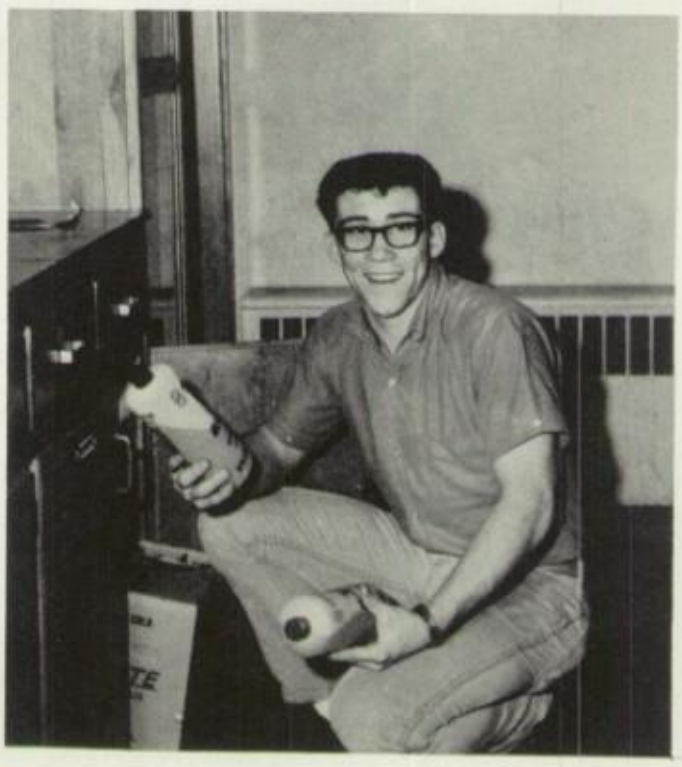
Now that many hours of work are over and the yearbook completed, the staff would like to express their thanks to our photographer, Leon Moeder.


He had probably one of the hardest jobs to do and he did it efficiently. Again, the staff would like to acknowledge his work well done.
